Generation 1:

I think you all are going to appreciate this book. It has all the details that you need on your day to day routine. You have to read this together for the first week, then your daughter and yourself. And after that, you just have your daily

Generation 2:

I think it's a good book. It talks about the hardships of the late 1800s, with its life in the mountains. The book is about all the hardship of early life. This is a great book and a really fun read to read.

Generation 3:

I think this book was great. I've been doing this for 15 years, and it was very well written. It has a lot to offer. Thank you
