Generation 1:

I think I should read the cover. I had hoped the book would be on Amazon so I could purchase the paper. The cover and the booklet were purchased separately and you get the same book but the first book is missing the page numbers.

Generation 2:

I think this book is great but it is filled with unnecessary information that will not please you. The author is an amateur (and this is not an academic discipline). This author has never taught a class and it was hard for him to understand how to actually use

Generation 3:

I think this is the most important book I've ever purchased. Not my favorite. I had ordered this in high grade and it was so heavy I could barely get it out. The price is extremely low. It is in poor condition, it has a small
